Eden, an educational charity, aims to connect us with each other and the living world through transformational projects and memorable experiences, exploring how we can work towards a better future.
To build a place of startling beauty that celebrates human ingenuity and demonstrates our ability to work together towards a common and inspirational goal...

Our vision was to take the most derelict and sterile place we could find and transform it into life...
Plants People and Places
Curiosity
The Huff and The Puff
Gatekeepers
Teacher training for outdoor learning and free play
IMPACT... next steps